X TERRA TAHITI TRANSTAHITIENNE

September 5th 2026

The X TERRA Tahiti Transtahitienne returns for its 2nd edition, inviting outdoor sports enthusiasts to experience a unique adventure in the heart of French Polynesia, on the legendary island of Tahiti.

This race, held entirely in the wild, invites each participant to respect the environment, follow sporting rules, and cultivate team spirit—values that lie at the heart of X TERRA.

« TRAIL RUN » OR « RUN & BIKE »

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5th

TRAIL RUN 25 MILES

A demanding 25 miles course with 4,430 feet elevation gain, linking Mataiea to Papenoo, through the island's wild valleys. All athletes will cross Tahiti from the west coast to the east coast, offering total immersion in spectacular landscapes.

TWO FORMATS ARE OFFERED

- Solo, for long-distance trail running enthusiasts (20 years old and over)
- Run & Bike (team of two), a mountain bike & trail relay that guarantees an intense and friendly sporting experience in the heart of Tahiti's valleys (teams of two, from the Junior category: athletes born in 2007 or earlier — minimum age 18 within the year)

An iconic event, the Transtahitienne has been part of the X TERRA Asia-Pacific circuit since 2015, attracting athletes from around the world every year.

Start: Football stadium near the Teva i Uta Town Hall
Finish: Papenoo football field

Program
